

TELECOMMUNICATIONS TECHNICAL SPECIALISTS/ TELECOMMUNICATIONS ENGINEER in WESTERN AUSTRALIA

We are looking for individuals with a passion for all things telecommunications, and who is dedicated to both learn and grow within this industry.

English Skills IELTS 6.0 or Similar

You will be committed to completing practical and theory-based study.

You will thrive working independently or as part of a team and love the challenge of multi-tasking and solving technical problems.

In addition to these qualities,

Have you ever been exposed to Telecommunication Copper Network ?

Will provide training for suitable applicants.

There are four sort listed Part -Time positions (25-30hours a week) in four areas that are most suitable. Applicants who are currently willing relocate to Regional Western Australia are encouraged to apply.

Your exposure to different area of telecommunications and a better understanding of the field.

You will have a variety of duties including, but not limited to.

- Installing underground telecommunications cables.
- Troubleshooting faults in the telecommunication cable lines and equipment including fault tracing using JDSU and cable fault locators.
- Telecom cable joints new installations and reinstallations including watertight sealings. Installation of communication cabinets, distribution points and terminations.
- Termination of network lines to the telecommunication equipment in the customer premises and telecom sites.
- Testing, replacing, adjusting, and repairing faulty telecommunication equipment using various electronic instruments.

Preferred 2021/2022 Engineering graduate students under 30 Years old from University of Moratuwa, University of Peradeniya or University of Ruhuna.

Please Forward your Resume to hr@comnik.com.au