

Be a part of the Difference

Classic Destinations is a Destinations Management Company and a member of Expolanka Holdings PLC. We offer complete travel solutions for tours, events and accommodation while firmly maintaining high standards. We are currently seeking a dynamic individual with the right attitude to take on the role of Destinations Manager Inbound to undertake the duties of handling the customer requirements, coordinating with overseas tour operators and third-party suppliers, and overlooking the critical responsibilities assigned under the position to the best of his/her abilities.

Assistant Manager - French Market

Requirements and Experience

- Fluency in spoken and written French
- Minimum 6 years exposure handling European market for inbound tour operations
- Sound understanding of Destination Management Services inbound tourist movement
- Proficient in planning and executing tour itineraries independently
- Ability to work efficiently under pressure and

Responsibilities of the position

Responsible for working independently attending to the requirements of assigned clients and inquiries, ensuring smooth planning and operation of inbound tour services inline to achieve the goals set by the management.

- Preparation and follow-up of tour itineraries/costings as per the client's requirements.
- Coordinate with local hotels & service providers with regard to tours.
- Provide direction and leadership to assigned team to ensure smooth operational workflow
- Maintaining and cultivate professional working relationships with all stakeholders
- Assist with any other project assigned by Management

If you are interested to be a part of the inbound team, write to us with your CV and the names and addresses of two non-related referees to careers@classictravel.lk

Expolanka Holdings PLC is a diversified conglomerate with interests in Freight & Logistics, Travel & Leisure, International Trading & Manufacturing and Investments & Services sectors. The Group has a global presence in over 18 countries and 45 cities with 60 subsidiaries and joint venture companies.

