

BANDARANAIKE CENTRE FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

VACANCIES

RESEARCH OFFICER

The Bandaranaike Centre for International Studies (BCIS) is a research and education based institution which focuses on International Relations and its sub disciplines and is the education arm of the BMICH.

The BCIS has decided to expand its research/academic programs in International Relations and related subjects and therefore, is looking for experienced, qualified and conscientious researchers willing to contribute to the advancement of the institution.

In this light, applications are now called for the Post of Research Officer.

Tasks and Responsibilities

- Develop IR related research concepts/ projects.
- Produce International Relations analytical reports and develop BCIS' areas of research interests.
- Carry out qualitative and quantitative data collection and analysis.
- Supervise and mentor junior researchers.
- Coordinate on going new initiatives and liaise with relevant stakeholders.

Qualifications and Skills

- A Masters' qualification in International Relations or Political Science (or in related Social Sciences) from a recognized local or foreign University.
- A minimum of five (5) years of relevant professional work experience.
- Excellent communication, analytical and writing skills in English with proficiency in IT
- Networking skills and links with think-tanks and related stakeholder organizations / development partners in Sri Lanka and abroad.
- Passionate, innovative and enthusiastic player.

Salary: Negotiable

Application Submission Deadline: October 30, 2022

Candidates can email their CVs to careers@bmich.com with a covering letter addressed to the Director-BCIS.

The Century International
Quality ERA Award
Gold - Geneva | Platinum - Paris

IWJO
Platinum Award

South Asian Travel Award
Leading Meeting & Convention Centre

Sri Lanka Tourism Awards
The Best MICE Venue