

SENIOR MANAGEMENT ACCOUNTANT

We are on the look out for a dynamic and an energetic individual join Trischel Fabric (Pvt) Ltd as a Senior Management Accountant. This role requires monitoring the performance of Trischel through analysis, feasibility studying/ recommendations, cost saving initiatives and the preparation of management reports, budget preparation, control and monitoring - thereby facilitating organizational decision making.

Key Responsibilities:

- Assist in directing the financial affairs of the JV partners and internal departments by developing/ implementing/ controlling inventory policies/strategies, providing strategic analysis, assisting the management in formulating business plans/budget/Board papers and thereby facilitate the setting-up of the overall business direction of the organization.
- Collate and analyze financial information in order to prepare & present organizational performance reports and assist the management in strategic decision making.
- Responsible for analyzing raw material cost on a monthly basis & ensure the system adherence in raw material related processes.
- Enforce the control over assets by managing the CAPEX budget, assist in asset verification, ensure the assets are adequately insured and reporting.
- Monitor the allocated team KPI's and the allocated tasks to complete after the review and ensure deliverables are met in an effective and efficient manner.
- Being part of a performance driven team actively contributing to system and process improvements.
- Perform additional duties that commensurate with the current role, as and when requested by management.

Qualification and Experience:

- A Degree in Accounting/Economics/Mathematics or Statistics with CIMA/ CA/ ACCA full qualification
- At least 4 years of experience in Manufacturing Environment
- Proficient in using SAP
- Effective communication skills

Closing Date: 31.03.2023

