

REGULATORY

With over 3 Decades of specialized experience, Analytical Instruments (Pvt) Ltd has pioneered in many innovative technological transformations in the country by constantly challenging our status quo to deliver the latest technologies to our customers. We supply state of the art, premium quality products which includes 'Medical Diagnostic.

'Diagnostic Products and Reagents' and 'High Technology Analytical Equipment and Instruments' to diverse markets in Health, Scientific, Agriculture, Water and Weighing Sectors in Sri Lanka, reliably and efficiently.

MANAGER - REGULATORY

Manage the registration of all products according to the Regulatory Act at National Medicines Regulatory Authority (NMRA) and Other regulatory institutions as the key responsible person related to the Product Registration of the Company.

Key Responsibilities:

- Develop strategies to ensure that regulatory approvals are there to perform the activities of the organization aligning the government regulations.
- Prepare, Evaluate and submit the formal documents applicable to regulatory authorities.
- Act as a coordinator between operations departments of the organization and the regulatory authorities regarding order pipelines and product release to the market to ensure that the regulations are met properly.
- Manage the with Quality Assurance including temperature monitoring, maintenance of quality agreements, release of products for sale, product inspection (audits) and preparation and development of Standard Operating Procedures.
- Develop and maintain professional relationships with all the regulatory agencies for smooth functions.
- Communicate with Principals by adhering to organizational policies and protocols to increase efficiency and effective registration process.
- Maintain current knowledge of regulations applicable to the organization and update time to time and monitor regulatory affairs and the effect changes on company operations.

Key Requirements:

- BSc in Pharmacy/ B. Pharm with minimum 5 years of working experience in a similar role.
- Hold the Certificate of Registration as a Pharmacist.
- Excellent communication, interpersonal and negotiation skills.
- Be Deadline-Oriented and possess Time Management skills.
- Thoroughly working with EPR / NAV environment.

Send us your profiles within 10 days of this advertisement with 2 non-related referees to;

hr@aipi.lk

Head of Group Human Resources

Analytical Instruments (Pvt) Ltd

No. 100, Elvitigala Mawatha, Colombo 08 | Tel: 0112-639000 | Web: www.aipi.lk

